

When you take a day trip to ARIAH PARK ...

Ariah Park is a 1920s heritage village, situated on the intersection of The Burley Griffin Way and Mary Gilmore Way

Visit "HAZELDEAN"

"Hazeldean" is situated on Quandary Road, Ariah Park, and is a fifth-generation family farm . . . come for morning or afternoon tea and see how we are preserving the area's heritage.

Step back in time

ARIAH PARK VILLAGE

- Meals and refreshments available Ariah Park Hotel and White Rose' Cafe
- See the themed decorated shop windows
- Take a self-guided tour of historic churches and court house
- Visit Broken Dam, original settlement with interpretive signs marking historic sites, 5 minutes north of Ariah Park
- Visit Lake Arbortree. 6 kms north of Ariah Park - Recreational and picnic area
- Browse through "Yesterdays Treasures" antique shop. "Peppercorn Cottage" old wares and curiosities. "Second Glance" op shop.
- "Echoes of Ariah Park" Museum

www.ariahpark.com.au

"HAZELDEAN"

Enjoy morning or afternoon tea and home-made pikelets, jam and cream served on English fine bone china in the gardens of "Hazeldean"

Look through the two renovated Train carriages, set in park like gardens used in an award winning bed and breakfast operation.

Walk through the Pioneers Cottage housing family and household memorabilia dating back to the late 1800s.

Collection of horse drawn farming equipment and harness.

Bookings essential. Small groups (Minimum of 6 to 24)

Enquiries: Phone Rita Bromfield (02) 6973 1221

www.countrycarriage.com.au